

La Original Banda el Limón performs a medley of hits after winning the ASCAP Latin Heritage Award

ASCAP Golden Note Award honoree Mario Domm

Maffio, who won an award for co-writing "Tú Me Quemás"

THE 2015 ASCAP LATIN MUSIC AWARDS

PHOTOS BY PICTUREGROUP

Warner/Chappell receives the ASCAP Latin Publisher of the Year award

Claudia Brant and Romeo Santos were named Songwriters of the Year at the 23rd annual ASCAP Latin Music Awards, held on March 11th at The Beverly Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles, CA. ASCAP President Paul Williams presented the award to Claudia Brant. This is the second time that Brant has received the Songwriter of the Year award and Romeo Santos's fifth win. Williams also presented several exclusive ASCAP Latin honors at the ceremony: the ASCAP Latin Heritage Award went to La Original Banda El Limón de Salvador Lizárraga in recognition of their unique and enduring contributions to Latin music; David Bisbal received the ASCAP Voice of Music Award for songwriters and artists whose music gives voice to the spirit of a generation; and Mario Domm received the Golden Note Award for his extraordinary career milestones. The songwriters and publishers of ASCAP's most performed songs in Latin Music in 2014 were also recognized during the invite-only awards ceremony. ●

Natalia Jimenez

Noel Schajris

ASCAP Latin Songwriter of the Year Claudia Brant

Elva Saray - El Premio's host

Sony/ATV wins its 13th consecutive ASCAP Latin Publisher of the Year award

(l-r) ASCAP VP Latin Membership Alexandra Lioutikoff, Voice of Music Award Recipient David Bisbal and ASCAP's President Paul Williams